Looking Back At Last Month!

Cocktail Tea Party

A cocktail tea party to remember at The Margot! From handcrafted cocktails to delicate sandwiches and dreamy desserts, this event was all about savoring the finer things in life. We loved seeing our residents come together to connect, indulge, and enjoy the beautiful setup.

Special thanks to Umar for capturing the magic on video—your creativity brings our community to life!

What Residents are Saying

BV.

"I had an outstanding experience living at The Margot (formerly Blu) for the past three years. The location, amenities, vibe, and quality of units are all excellent. Elizabeth and the staff do an excellent job. They're very responsive, and it felt like they were genuinely invested in my experience. The only reason I left this apartment is because I moved to the East Coast. I will genuinely miss living here!"

Lake To Lake Bike Ride

Get Ready To Ride!

Bellevue's annual Lake to Lake Bike Ride returns on Saturday, June 14, offering a fun and scenic way to explore the city's beautiful parks and trails. With two route options—an easier 8-mile course and a more challenging 24-mile route—there's something for every skill level. The ride starts at Robinswood Community Park and includes refreshments, support stations, and beautiful views throughout the journey. It's a great way to get active, connect with the community, and enjoy Bellevue's natural beauty on two wheels.

Perks: Kids can ride in the park for free, and the event concludes with a post-ride party featuring prize giveaways and activities for all ages!
