Seattle Night Market

It's Back!

CID Night Market returns on September 21st from 1 PM-9 PM after a yearlong break. This street festival in Seattle's Historic Chinatown-International District features street vendors, food trucks, and cultural performances.

Since 2006, the event has offered an open-air market experience at night with local vendors selling food and arts. At dusk, enjoy traditional performances like lion dances and taiko drumming under the red arch in Hing Hay Park.
